

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT.

Washington, D. C.,

May 5

1888

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia.

Sir:

I shall be pleased if you will have the engraver prepared for the use of the Director of the Mint a seal, with the legend "Director of the Mint," smaller than the enclosed impression in wax and with the figure of an eagle in high relief.

I dare say an old coinage or medal die can be found that will answer. It is simply for the use of the Director's desk. It ought not to be in size larger than the three-dollar piece.

I may be in Philadelphia about the middle of next week, and can then confer with the engraver, if necessary.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint,

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 151

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
May 5, 1888

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

Sir:

I shall be pleased if you will have the engraver prepare for the use of the Director of the Mint a seal, with the legend "Director of the Mint", smaller than the enclosed impression in wax and with the figure of an eagle in high relief.

I dare say an old coinage or medal die can be found that will answer. It is simply for the use of the Director's desk. It ought not to be in size larger than the three-dollar piece.

I may be in Philadelphia about the middle of next week, and can then confer with the engraver, if necessary.

Respectfully yours,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.